

MERIDIAN LIONS QUEEN CONTESTANT AND RIDER ENTRY RELEASE

In consideration for accepting the undersigned's entry, undersigned hereby releases and forever discharges the Mee family and facility, all persons serving as judges, as well as the Meridian Lions Club, its' past, present, and future members, directors, officers, attorneys, agents, servants, representatives, subsidiaries, affiliates, partners, administrators, and successors in interest, and assigns including, but not limited to, real property owners, stock contractors, arena contractors, and their agents and employees, of obligation, causes of action, damages, costs, expenses, and compensation of any nature whatsoever which may hereafter accrue to undersigned as a result of the undersigned's participation or entry in the Meridian Lions Rodeo Queen Pageant and Competition, including, without limitation, any known or unknown claims for bodily and personal injuries to undersigned or undersigned's animals which may be a possible result from undersigned's entry in this event.

Undersigned hereby assumes and accepts full risk and danger of any hurt, injury, or damage which may occur as a result of undersigned's participation in the Meridian Lion's Rodeo Queen Pageant and Competition including any injury or damage experienced by undersigned during the set up, preparation, duration, or dismantling of said event.

The undersigned declares and represents that undersigned have read this release and has fully understood and accept the terms contained herein.

---

Full Name

---

Date

---

Signature

---

Rider or Contestant Age

As the proposed entry is under age eighteen (18) years, signature of parent or gaurdian is required. I/we hereby execute this release on behalf of the abouve-described minor child, and fully understand and accept the terms and conditions of this release.

---

Mother/Father/Legal Gaurdian

---

Date